

Betterliving Locums

Corporate identity

Betterliving locums was founded in 2003 as a recruitment consultancy providing temporary staff in the UK.

The client had two objectives. The first was to develop a corporate identity that stands out against major competitors in the locum business. The second was to create a brand that reflects quality of service both to candidates and clients alike.